The Art of Public Speaking Forum

Friday 4 April 2014, 10.30am – 2.00pm

The Lecture Theatre and Weeks Library @ Hunter Valley Grammar School – Norfolk St, Ashtonfield, NSW 2323

$15 per student, morning tea and lunch are included. Cost for an accompanying teacher is included in this charge

FOCUS: The ability to speak well in front of an audience can boost your school, personal and career life. When you learn to feel comfortable speaking in public, you’ll become more confident and develop better communication skills. Public speaking helps you develop the confidence needed to express your thoughts and speak in front of others.

This forum is tailored to HICES students who have a particular interest and enthusiasm for public speaking. Guest speakers, workshops, morning tea, lunch and practical experience is all included. To be of most benefit to those attending, spaces are limited, so act promptly so as not to be disappointed.

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKERS: Bob Baldwin (MP, Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of Industry), Paul Teys (Principal, HVGS) and Claire Williams (Senior Research Officer, University of Newcastle)

NUMBERS: Your school is invited to bring up to four students to the workshop and one teacher. Students who play a leadership role within the school or are keen debaters and public speakers would benefit from this event. If you would like more students to attend, please indicate this, if places are available we will let you know.

CLICK HERE TO BOOK : spaces are limited, ticket sales close Friday 21 March if not sold out prior. If you have any questions, please email Ms Emma Wood (Drama Faculty) on woode@hvgs.nsw.edu.au.

HVGS looks forward to welcoming your students for an engaging and inspirational day.

Kind regards

Paul Teys
Principal
